Dear Sir:

I am sending you today, under separate cover, a sample of the small black coin box which we desire you to make for us, in accordance with our order given last summer.

I understood as a result of my telephone conversation with your office yesterday, that in moving you had lost the sample which we supplied at the time of giving the order.

I trust that there will be further delay in filling our order, and wish you would let me know immediately how soon we may expect to receive the boxes.

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator.
